

JAN 24 2024

A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO RICHARD "BUFFALO" KEAULANA DAY.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that Richard "Buffalo"
2 Keaulana was an iconic surfer and lifesaver. Born on September
3 2, 1935, in Honolulu, Keaulana learned to surf as a young boy in 4 the gentle rollers off Waikiki. Keaulana eventually graduated
5 to the level of "beach boy" before his family settled in his 6 home community of Makaha. Keaulana grew to be known as one of 7 Hawaii's most naturally talented surfers. His smooth style,
8 switch-stance skills, and "nose for the pocket" made him a
9 favorite at the annual Makaha International contest, an event he 10 won in 1960. Keaulana captured six of the top-four finishes in 11 the contest between 1957 and 1965. His achievements led many to 12 consider him the world's best bodysurfer at the time.

13 Along with his renowned surfing talent, Keaulana was named
14 Makaha's chief lifeguard in 1969, a position he held for over 15 two decades. He came to be known as the "mayor of Makaha", and 16 in 1972, the community erected a statue in his honor in front of 17 the Makaha library. Keaulana was also honored with an annual

1 surf contest and beach party in his name, Buffalo's Big Board
2 Classic, which continues to be a community mainstay today.
3 Additionally, in 2010, Keaulana was inducted into the Outrigger
4 Duke Kahanamoku Foundation's hall of fame. Perhaps his greatest
5 honor and achievement was becoming the patriarch of his own West
6 Oahu dynasty, currently in its third generation. Two of his six
7 children have noteworthy careers in surfing: Brian, a
8 world-class waterman and big-wave surfer; and Rusty, a
9 three-time world longboard champion (1993-1995). His family
10 continues to be known as "Makaha's first family".

11 Richard "Buffalo" Keaulana's enduring legacy of aloha has 12 touched generations of ocean lovers and surfers worldwide. A
13 friend and fellow beach boy of Duke Kahanamoku, Keaulana's
14 contributions to the sport of surfing and Hawaiian cultural 15 restoration are everlasting. In 1976, Keaulana was on the first
16 voyage of the Hokulea to Tahiti, acting as the voyaging canoe's
17 steersman. His unique nickname, "Buffalo", derives from his 18 constant connection and companionship with the water, in 19 addition to his "large head and copious amounts of hair", as his 20 friends would describe him. As Makaha's first lifeguard,
21 Keaulana's legacy extends beyond surfing and his ambassadorship

1 of aloha. He not only was essential in protecting swimmers in
2 Makaha's rough waters but was a father figure to many of West
3 Oahu's youth.

4 Accordingly, the purpose of this Act is to honor Keaulana
5 by designating September 2nd of each year as Richard "Buffalo"
6 Keaulana Day.

7 SECTION 2. Chapter 8, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended
8 by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to 9 read as follows:

10 "§8- Richard "Buffalo" Keaulana Day. September 2 of 11 each year shall be known and recognized as "Richard "Buffalo"
12 Keaulana Day"; provided that this day is not and shall not be 13 construed to be a state holiday."

14 SECTION 3. New statutory material is underscored.

15 SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

16

INTRODUCED BY:

S.B. NO. 3270

Report Title:

Richard Buffalo Keaulana Day

Description:

Designates September 2nd of each year as "Richard "Buffalo" Keaulana Day".

The summary description of legislation appearing on this page is for informational purposes only and is not legislation or evidence of legislative intent.

