III. Service Summary and Outcomes

The Service Summary shall include a detailed discussion of the applicant's approach to the request. The applicant shall clearly and concisely specify the results, outcomes, and measures of effectiveness from this request. The applicant shall:

1. Describe the scope of work, tasks and responsibilities;

For over 59 years, the EBLC has sponsored several community enrichment events for the Ewa Beach community. These events are annual and free to the community.

- a. Special Needs Children Christmas Party is unique in that, these children (with disabilities) in the Ewa Beach Elementary Schools are invited to attend a Christmas party designed solely as a special day for them. Students, teachers, and aides are bused to Asing Community Park for a Christmas pizza party . Included are pictures with Santa, face painting, Oreo cookies, bug juice, water, fruit cocktail and pizza are served. Holiday music is played throughout the event.
- b. Christmas Parade is a two miles route starting James Campbell High School parking lot and ending at the Hale Pono Boys and Girls Club. It consists of at least 45 groups of participants (marchers, walkers, and riders) which includes , businesses, schools, clubs, organizations as well as elected officials who represent the community. Approximately 550 adults and children participate in the parade. Besides marchers, there are horses, vehicles and floats. One thousand pounds of candy is disbursed along the parade route. Approximately 5,000 young and old residents align the two-mile parade route.
- c. Easter Bash – The Easter Bunny visits and pictures are taken with the bunny. Youths 0-12 years get to egg hunt with their age group. Approximately 150 baskets and goody bags are issued to support this event. Pizza is issued along with bottled water and bikes are given out as door prizes.
- d. One'ula Beach (Haubush) Cleanup consist of volunteers from schools, organization, and businesses.
- e. Vision screening is on-going during the school year. Outreach to the public and private elementary schools in Ewa Beach is made in September to arrange vision screening. Purpose is to identify children early who require comprehensive eye screening.
- f. Senior Valentine Dance for Seniors is held at Asing Park. Music, food, refreshments, games and door prizes are issued to participants.
- g. Veteran Appreciation Cup gift set for the Veterans at the Kalaeloa Veteran Shelter. 150 Cups filled with various items for the Veterans.
- h. Socks for Soldiers Drive – New Socks for the Veterans at the Kalaeloa Veteran Shelter
- i. Halloween Trick or Treat - Candy Bags, refreshments, pizza are issued.
- j. Monthly Food Drive –Donated food is issued to several food lockers in Ewa Beach

2. Provide a projected annual timeline for accomplishing the results or outcomes of the service;
  - a. Special Needs Children Christmas Party – Planning commences in August with venue reservation (Asing Park). Outreach to Elementary Schools in Ewa Beach; participation count confirmed in October. Logistic outreach to ground transport (buses), tables/chairs reservation, gifts, decorations, food, drinks, photo, and Santa confirmation in November. Event is held 1st week in December. b.

Christmas Parade – planning commences in July. Outreach to City & County of Honolulu for permits. September – outreach to fire department, roadway solutions, schools, agencies, businesses, community groups, and civic clubs. Confirmation of parade participants in November. Purchase candy in December. Event held second or third week in December. c. Senior Valentine dance – planning commences in December reserving a room at Asing Park, gathering the gift prizes, ordering the pizza. Event is held in February. d. Easter Bash – planning commences in January – obtain permit and insurance. Purchase candy and supplies for baskets. Create Easter baskets and goody bags in February. Event is held on Saturday a week before Easter. e. Monthly Beach Clean – up. Last Saturday of the month. f. Vision Screening – Outreach to schools in September and on-going screening throughout the school year. g. Veterans Appreciation cup gift set and Socks for Soldier. Purchasing items for the gift cup and socks is done in October and preparing the gift cups is done in November. Items are delivered to the Veteran Shelter at Kalaeloa h. Monthly food drive is held monthly, and food is distributed to various food lockers in Ewa Beach community.

3. Describe its quality assurance and evaluation plans for the request. Specify how the applicant plans to monitor, evaluate, and improve their results; and EBLC has chosen to focus on these activities because it has been the core set of activities for our club. We have over 59 years of experience coordinating these events and have become extremely efficient and effective in executing these events. Residents positive feedback indicate that these events have become central to our community identity and ingrained in the community culture. Our residents look forward to these events and these events are expected annually. Annual data shows increase of participation for each event. AFTER ACTION REVIEW (AAR) sessions are conducted following each event to improve future events. Reviews include safety issues, cost of event incidental mishaps and benefits to the community.

4. List the measure(s) of effectiveness that will be reported to the State agency through which grant funds are appropriated (the expending agency). The measure(s) will provide a standard and objective way for the State to assess the program's achievement or accomplishment. Please note that if the level of appropriation differs from the amount included in this application that the measure(s) of effectiveness will need to be updated and transmitted to the expending agency.
The annual events are community enrichment events and free to the community. Workers are all volunteers and no paid salary employee. An after-action report is completed after each event to measure effectiveness of the event. Each year the cost of these events increases due to inflation and other variables. The year-to-year itemized comparison cost to execute each event is reviewed. Extensive comparison of resources is evaluated to measure who can deliver the same quality service for less cost i.e., purchasing the pizza for the Christmas party from Costco or Pizza Hut. Feedback from residents regarding the events. How can we improve the events, what additional needs do residents want.
