
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO CHILD PERFORMERS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that the Coogan Law, also 2 known as the California Child Actor's Bill, was first passed in 3 California in 1939 to protect child actors from exploitation in 4 the entertainment industry. The law was named after actor
5 Jackie Coogan, who became one of the highest-paid child stars of 6 his time, only to have his earnings mismanaged by his parents,
7 leaving him with little financial security when he reached 8 adulthood. The Coogan Law has had a lasting impact in 9 California by securing financial protection for child actors,
10 ensuring that they can enjoy the benefits of their hard work
11 once they become adults, and promoting greater responsibility in 12 the entertainment industry.

13 Accordingly, the purpose of this Act is to protect the 14 safety, morals, health, and well-being of child performers who 15 work or reside in the State by requiring that a portion of the 16 child performer's earnings be kept in trust for the benefit of 17 the child performer until the child reaches the age of majority.

1 SECTION 2. Chapter 554B, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated
3 and to read as follows:

4 "§554B- Minors in theatrical employment; mandatory trust

5 account; fiduciary duty; rules. (a) The parent or legal 6 guardian of a minor in theatrical employment shall establish a
7 trust account for the benefit of the minor before the minor's 8 first instance of theatrical employment and shall maintain the 9 account until the custodian of the account transfers the 10 contents of the account to the minor or the minor's estate.

11 (b) The employer of the minor in theatrical employment
12 shall deposit at least fifteen per cent of the minor's gross 13 earnings to the trust account for the minor's benefit until the 14 minor attains the age of majority or is emancipated.

15 (c) The trust account shall be established with an 16 independent third-party trustee that ensures the security and 17 growth of the trust account and that provides the minor and the 18 minor's parent or legal guardian with quarterly statements.

19 (d) Any contracts or agreements involving a minor in 20 theatrical employment shall be signed by at least one parent or 21 legal guardian.

1 (e) A parent or legal guardian of a minor in theatrical 2 employment may access the funds within the mandatory trust
3 account established pursuant to subsection (a), for the minor,
4 but only for the benefit of the minor.

5 (f) Any misappropriation or fraudulent use of funds within 6 the mandatory trust account established pursuant to subsection
7 (a) by the parent or legal guardian of a minor in theatrical 8 employment, or the independent third-party trustee acting as the 9 custodian of the mandatory trust account, shall be a breach of 10 fiduciary duty subject to civil penalties, criminal prosecution, 11 and, in the case of the third-party trustee, removal from the 12 position of trustee.

13 (g) This section shall only apply when the gross income of 14 the minor in theatrical employment is at least:

15 (1) $5,000 for a project; or

16 (2) $20,000 in a calendar year.

17 (h) The department of labor and industrial relations shall 18 adopt rules pursuant to chapter 91 necessary for its wage 19 standards division to carry out the purposes of this section.

20 (i) For the purposes of this section:

1 "Employer" includes any individual, partnership,
2 association, joint stock company, trust, corporation, or the 3 personal representative of the estate of a deceased individual,
4 or the receiver, trustee, or successor of any of the same,
5 employing any person, but shall not include the State or any 6 political subdivision thereof or the United States.

7 "Theatrical employment" means gainful occupation as a
8 model; dancer; singer; musician; social media influencer;
9 entertainer; or motion picture, television, radio or theatrical 10 performer."

11 SECTION 3. This Act does not affect rights and duties that 12 matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were 13 begun before its effective date.

14 SECTION 4. New statutory material is underscored.

15 SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2050.
