

Josh Ige

Objective

To provide a great healthy lifestyle to my community and others who want to be healthy.

Education

- Graduated from Lana'i High School receiving a high school diploma, June 2, 2001
- Graduated from Maui Community College in May 15, 2005 receiving an Associate in Applied Science degree in Culinary Arts.

Honor Achievements

- Received Good Citizen Award at Lana'i High school in middle school for exemplary school citizenship on December 19, 1995
- Received Perfect Attendance Award in the 6th grade on May 31, 1995, in recognition of perfect attendance.
- Received 2001 most Outstanding Senior Award at Lana'i High School on June 2, 2001
- Received Certificate of Completion for completing the basic four cooking classes in the Maui community College Culinary Arts Program in March of 2005
- Received Certificate of Completion for completing the first six courses at Maui Culinary Academy on April 8, 2004
- Received 2018 SAAC Self Advocate Award on May 30, 2018
- Received Kaunda Senior Services Outstanding volunteer award on July 28, 2015, in recognition of the hours of dedication in delivering meals to homebound seniors on Lana'i.
- Received Certificate of Attendance on September 17, 2018, for successfully participating in a Matter of Balance: Managing concerns about falls.

Volunteer Experience

- Lana'i Baptist Church, 2000 – present: Vacation Bible School helper
- Lana'i Baptist Church, 2005 – present: Wednesday Morning Breakfast chef
- Community Christmas Luncheon, 1999 – present: helping prep, cook, and serve meals. Put up flyers around the community and help set up and clean up event.

Work Experience

- Lana'i High School, part-time Custodian, September 9, 2002 - present