Family – Home and Work:

Personal growth through small steps and reflecting on one's progression over the years is a true sign of leadership and community mindset. We speak to a goal of our young daughter to be guided by moral character, effort, and accountability. At Work, we abide by a simple mantra – We are 'Ohana serving 'Ohana. Our family tries to live by these values.

Professional

I'm seeking to leverage expertise in financed, real estate, and strong interpersonal skills to provide thoughtful ideas to the responsible growth of the Kakaako Community by which we work, thrive and play. As I own real estate and operate my business in the Kakaako area. I also serve in a non-profit that calls Kakaako their home.
