RE: Strong Support for House Concurrent Resolution 99

Aloha Chair Marten, Vice Chair Olds, and committee members,

I am writing in strong support of House Concurrent Resolution 99 on behalf of the Hawai'i State Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer Plus (LGBTQ+) Commission, which was established by the 2022 Hawai'i State Legislature with the following purpose:

"...to improve the State's interface with members of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, plus community; identify the short- and long-range needs of its members; and ensure that there is an effective means of researching, planning, and advocating for the equity of this population in all aspects of state government."

The Hawai'i State LGBTQ+ Commission strongly supports House Concurrent Resolution 99, which requests the State LGBTQ+ Commission and the Commission on the Status of Women to review the Hawai'i Revised Statutes and make recommendations for gender-neutral language terminology.

The State of Hawai'i has long been a leader in advancing equality and inclusion for LGBTQIA+ individuals. In 2013, the Hawai'i State Legislature passed marriage equality, ensuring that same-sex couples have the legal right to marry and be recognized under state law. This landmark legislation affirmed the dignity and rights of LGBTQIA+ families, and it is imperative that the rest of the Hawai'i Revised Statutes reflect this legal recognition when addressing married couples.

Furthermore, in 2019, the Hawai'i State Legislature took another significant step forward by expanding gender markers on state identification cards and driver's licenses beyond the false gender binary of "F" for female and "M" for male. This progressive policy acknowledges that gender exists on a spectrum and respects the identities of nonbinary, genderqueer, and other gender-diverse individuals in Hawai'i.

Despite these advances, much of Hawai'i's statutory language continues to reinforce outdated and exclusionary gender assumptions. Terms such as "husband" and "wife" remain in statutes where "spouse" would be more inclusive. Similarly, gendered pronouns are often used where neutral terms could better reflect the diversity of gender identities in our state. Updating these statutes to reflect gender-neutral language is not only a matter of inclusivity but also one of legal consistency with existing Hawai'i laws that affirm LGBTQIA+ rights.

Hawai'i has a proud history of embracing diversity and fostering a society where all individuals are treated with dignity and respect. By ensuring that our laws reflect the full spectrum of gender identities and family structures, we take another important step toward equity and justice for all residents.

For these reasons, the Hawai'i State LGBTQ+ Commission urges the passage of this resolution to review and recommend gender-neutral terminology in the Hawai'i Revised Statutes.

Mahalo for the opportunity to testify, and we respectfully ask for your support,
