JUSTIFICATION SHEET

SB. NO. 1321

DEPARTMENT: Attorney General

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII CORRECTIONAL SYSTEM OVERSIGHT COMMISSION.

PURPOSE: To extend the term of the oversight coordinator from two to four years and to clarify that the oversight coordinator has the general authority to inspect the premises of an agency or correctional facility without notice.

MEANS: Amend sections 353L-2(a) and 353L-7(c), Hawaii Revised Statutes.

JUSTIFICATION: Extending the term of the oversight coordinator from two to four years is needed to provide continuity and stability, both of which are essential for long-term projects and reforms. The oversight coordinator's ongoing involvement will ensure that longer term initiatives are carried through to their successful completion without the disruption that might arise from a transition period. This stability is crucial for maintaining momentum and achieving sustained improvements in oversight processes.

General authority to inspect the premises of an agency or correctional facility without notice is needed to ensure transparency and accountability within jails and prisons. By arriving without prior notice, the oversight coordinator can observe the true conditions and practices in place, rather than those that may be altered for a scheduled inspection. This approach helps uncover hidden problems such as inadequate medical care, abuse, or unsanitary conditions, which might be concealed or corrected temporarily if facilities were given advance notice.

Additionally, unannounced visits encourage facilities to consistently adhere to established standards, as they cannot predict when they will be inspected. This continuous pressure promotes better compliance and improvements in operations. Unannounced access by the oversight commission protects the rights and ensures the well-being of people in custody who tend to have a limited means of advocating for themselves. Overall, the improved compliance from unannounced visits enhances the effectiveness of oversight, builds trust in the process, and supports the ongoing reform and improvement of prison conditions.

Impact on the public: The public will benefit by improved conditions in correctional facilities.

Impact on the department and other agencies: Affected agencies will be subject to inspection without notice.

GENERAL FUND: None.

OTHER FUNDS: None.
