
SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE TO ADOPT RULES
AUTHORIZING RODEOS ON LANDS ZONED FOR AGRICULTURAL USE.

1 WHEREAS, the State possesses a rich ranching history and 2 cowboy culture preceding that of the American West; and

3
4 WHEREAS, in 1793, Captain James Vancouver presented
5 Kamehameha I with six cows and a bull on which Kamehameha I 6 imposed a kapu to prevent the cattle from being hunted or 7 killed; and

8
9 WHEREAS, over time, the herd flourished and turned feral,
10 becoming a nuisance and danger to Native Hawaiians as the herd
11 would rampage through villages and destroy crops, eat thatch off 12 the roofs of houses, and occasionally hurt or kill people; and

13
14 WHEREAS, in 1832, Kamehameha III sent one of his chiefs to 15 Alta California to enlist cowboys who could teach his people how 16 to work cattle; and

17
18 WHEREAS, the chief returned with three vaqueros who taught 19 aspiring Native Hawaiian cowboys to rope, slaughter, and breed
20 cattle; cure hides; construct fences and paddocks; and ride 21 horses; and

22
23 WHEREAS, Native Hawaiians took quickly to the skills and 24 techniques that the vaqueros introduced, iterated on these 25 skills and techniques, and developed a distinct Hawaiian cowboy 26 culture; and

27
28 WHEREAS, Hawaiian cowboys, known as paniolo, crafted their 29 saddles and gear in a style unique to them, created their own 30 genre of music accompanied by the guitar and ukulele, and also 31 developed a singular Hawaiian style of open-tuning for the 32 guitar called kihoalu, or slack key; and

1
2 WHEREAS, in 1908, three paniolo, Ikua Purdy, Archi Kaaua,
3 and Jack Low, traveled to Cheyenne, Wyoming, to compete in the 4 biggest rodeo at the time: Frontier Days; and 5

6 WHEREAS, the three paniolo emerged victorious over many of 7 America's best cowboys, shocking the American public; and 8

9 WHEREAS, when the three paniolo returned to Hawaii, they 10 were hailed as heroes with poetry and hula being composed in 11 their honor; and 12

13 WHEREAS, authorizing rodeos on lands zoned for agricultural 14 use would honor the State's rich ranching history and paniolo
15 culture; now, therefore,
16

17 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Thirty-third 18 Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2025, the 19 House of Representatives concurring, that the Department of 20 Agriculture is requested to adopt rules authorizing rodeos on 21 lands zoned for agricultural use; and 22

23 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a certified copy of this 24 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Chairperson of the 25 Board of Agriculture.
