There shall be but one ballot for president and vice president of the United States, members of Congress and state offices. The color, size, weight, shape and thickness of the ballot shall be determined by the Lieutenant Governor, and except as provided in section 11-3 shall contain the names of all candidates for Congress and for state office who may have been nominated according to law. In presidential elections the ballots also shall contain the names provided by section 11-39.5."

the vice presidential candidate of the same political party, thereby grouping the presidential and vice presidential candidate of the same political party within the same pair of horizontal lines. Immediately after all the names, on the right-hand side of the ballot, two vertical lines shall be ruled, so that in conjunction with such horizontal lines, a square shall be formed opposite each name and its equivalent, if any, and in case of the candidates for president and vice president of the same political party, only one square shall be formed opposite their set of names. The squares shall be of sufficient size to give ample room in which to designate the choice of the voter in the manner in this chapter prescribed. All of the names upon a ballot shall be placed at uniform distance from the left-hand edge and close thereto, and shall be of uniform size and print, except that the names of vice presidential candidates may be of smaller print."

(h) Add a new section as section 11-180.5 to read as follows:

The alphabetical arrangement of the names of the candidates for each office shall be as uniform as practicable to comply with the laws governing the use of non-machine ballots at elections insofar as the construction of the voting machine will permit."

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 35-1, Revised Laws of Hawaii 1955, is hereby amended by substituting a semi-colon for the period appearing at the end of the definition of "Government," and by adding the following:

"Special fund" means any fund that by law is set aside or appropriated or dedicated for a limited object or purpose; provided that "special fund" does not include a revolving fund or a trust fund;

"Revolving fund" means a fund from which is paid the cost of goods or services rendered or furnished to or by a state department or establishment, and which is replenished through charges made for such goods or services or through transfers from other accounts or funds;

"Trust fund" means a fund in which designated persons or classes of persons have a vested beneficial interest or equitable ownership, or which was created or established by a gift, grant, contribution, devise or bequest that limits the use of the fund to designated objects or purposes.

SECTION 2. Section 35-14, Revised Laws of Hawaii 1955, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

SECTION 3. There is hereby added to chapter 35, Revised Laws of Hawaii 1955, as amended, the following new sections to be numbered and to read as follows:

"Sec. 35-19. Intent and policy. It is hereby declared to be the policy and intent of the legislature that the total appropriations made by it, or the total of any budget approved by it, for any department or establishment, shall be deemed to be the maximum amount authorized to meet the requirements of such department or establishment for the period of the appropriation, excepting as may otherwise be provided by law, and that the governor and the director of budget should be given the powers granted by sections 35-20 to 35-29 in order that savings may be effected by careful supervision throughout each appropriation period with due regard to changing conditions; and by promoting more economic and efficient management of state departments and establishments.

“Sec. 35-20. Quarterly allotment periods. No officer, department or establishment shall expend or be allowed to expend during any fiscal year any sum for any purpose not specifically authorized by the legislature for expenditure during that particular fiscal year, and not made available pursuant to the allotment system provided for in sections 35-19 to 35-29. For the purposes of the allotment system, each fiscal year shall be divided into four quarterly allotment periods, beginning, respectively, on the first days of July, October, January, and April; provided that in any case where the quarterly allotment period is impracticable, the director may prescribe a different period suited to the circumstances, not exceeding six months nor extending beyond the end of the fiscal year.

“Sec. 35-21. Funds to which allotment system applies. The provisions of this act relating to the allotment system shall apply to all appropriations (including standing, continuing or annual appropriations and special funds) for all departments and establishments, but shall not apply to refund accounts nor to appropriations for the courts or the legislature nor to payment of unemployment compensation benefits. In the cases of capital improvements and in other cases where periodical allotments are impracticable, the director may dispense therewith and prescribe such regulations as will insure proper application and encumbering of funds. Subject to the provisions of section 35-28, emergency or contingent funds, revolving funds and trust funds, shall be subject to such regulations as the director may prescribe for controlling the expenditures and encumbering of such funds.

“Sec. 35-22. Appropriations available for allotment; estimate of expenses. No appropriation to which the allotment system is applicable shall become available to any department or establishment for expenditure during any allotment period until such department or establishment submits to the director at such time prior to the beginning of such allotment period and in such form as the director may prescribe an estimate of the amount required to carry on the work of such department or establishment during that period, and until such estimate is approved, increased or decreased by the director and funds allotted therefor.

“Sec. 35-23. Estimated expenditures; approval. The director shall review all estimates submitted to him, and, having due regard for the probable further needs of the department or establishment for the remainder of the term for which the appropriation was made, the terms and purposes of the appropriation, the progress of collection of revenues, and condition of the treasury, and the probable receipts and total cash requirements for the ensuing quarter, he shall approve, increase or reduce the amount of the estimate. The director shall act promptly upon all estimates and notify each department or establishment of its allotment, and shall notify the comptroller.

“Sec. 35-24. Modification. The director shall have authority at any time to modify or amend any allotment previously made by him, upon application of, or upon notice to, the department or establishment concerned, provided, that no deficit or undue reduction of funds to meet future needs of such department or establishment will result therefrom and provided, further, that no such modification or amendment reduces an allotment below the amount required to meet valid obligations or commitments previously incurred against the allotted funds.

“Sec. 35-25. Reduction. In case the director determines at any time that the probable receipts from taxes or any other sources for any appropriation will be less than was anticipated, and that consequently the amount available for the remainder of the term of the appropriation or for any allotment period will be less than the amount estimated or allotted therefor, the director shall, with the approval of the governor, and after notice to the department or establishment concerned, reduce the amount allotted or to be allotted, provided that no such reduction reduces any allotted amount below the amount required to meet valid obligations or commitments previously incurred against the allotted fund.

“Sec. 35-26. Allotment according to classification prescribed in appropriation. Allotments shall be made according to the classifications of expenditures prescribed in the appropriation measure as enacted by the legislature, and the funds allotted for each classification of expenditure shall be used for no other classification of expenditure.

“Sec. 35-27. Reduction of allotted amounts for objects and items. The head of a department or establishment may, at any time during any allotment period, reduce the expenditure of money appropriated and allotted for that period for specific items and objects within the classification of expenditures prescribed in the appropriation measure and allotted to such department or establishment.

“Sec. 35-28. Exceptions; revolving and trust funds. Except as to administrative expenditures, and except as otherwise provided by law, expenditures from revolving and trust funds and funds established to provide services rendered by any state department or establishment to other state departments or establishments or to any political subdivision of the state, may be made by any department or establishment without appropriation or allotment; provided that no expenditure shall be made from and no obligation shall be incurred against any revolving fund or trust fund in excess of the amount standing to the credit of such fund or for any purpose for which such fund may not lawfully be expended. Nothing contained in sections 35-19 to 35-29 shall be construed to require that revolving funds, trust funds or any refund account established pursuant to law be reappropriated annually.

“Sec. 35-29. Appropriations to revert to state treasury; exceptions. Unless otherwise provided by law, every appropriation or part thereof of any kind made subject to the provisions of sections 35-19 to 35-28, remaining unexpended and unencumbered at the close of any fiscal year shall lapse and be returned to the general fund in the manner prescribed in sec. 34-45.

“Sec. 35-30. Allotment as limit of expenditure; liability for excessive expenditure. No department or establishment shall expend or be allowed to expend any sum, or incur or be allowed to incur any obligation in excess of an allotment. No obligation incurred in excess of the balance of an allotment shall be binding against the state, but where the obligation is violative only for having been made in excess of an allotment, the director may authorize payment thereof from unallotted funds. Any officer, employee or member of any department or establishment, who makes or causes to be made any excessive expenditure or incurs or causes to be incurred any excessive obligation shall be deemed guilty of neglect of official duty and shall be subject to removal from office and shall be liable to the state for such sum as may have been expended or paid, and such sum, together with interest and costs, shall be recoverable in an action instituted by the Attorney General.”

Each claims commission shall be composed of three members who shall be residents of that county. At least one of the members of each commission shall be a qualified appraiser. The members of each commission shall be appointed by the governor in the manner provided for by section 6 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii. Each commission shall continue in existence until all losses within their county shall have been fully determined and certified. The members of each commission shall elect their own chairman and shall serve without pay, but shall be reimbursed by the state for their reasonable expenses. Each member of each commission shall have the power to administer oaths or affirmations with respect to any matters coming within the scope of the duties of each commission.

SECTION 2. In case of the damage or destruction of real or personal property of a taxpayer as the result of the hurricane activity on August 5 and 6, 1959, the tax commissioner is authorized to remit, refund, or forgive the taxes hereinafter mentioned, due or to become due from said taxpayer suffering such loss, in the manner hereinafter set forth, to wit:

The taxpayer shall, on or before December 31, 1959, or such other date as may be prescribed by each claims commission, file a claim, under oath, with each claims commission setting forth the amount of his loss. Each commission shall thereupon investigate such claim and determine the total loss suffered by reason of the damage or destruction of the real or personal property, less insurance recoveries, payments on account of such loss under the Sugar Act of 1948 (61 Stat. 922, Chap. 519) or under Public Law 875, 81st Congress, Second Session, as either act may be amended or supplemented, or other recoveries, and shall certify as soon as practicable the amount of such loss to the tax commissioner. The claim to be filed on or before December 31, 1959, or such other date as may be prescribed by each claims commission, setting forth the amount of the taxpayer's loss and the certification of each claims commission, shall be subject to review by each commission from time to time in the event substantial new evidence should show more accurately the amount of loss suffered from damage to or destruction of real or personal property resulting from the hurricane activity. In such event, the taxpayer shall have the right to file amended claims and each commission shall have the authority to hold hearings to require further proof from time to time of the amount of the loss claimed in the initial filing of the taxpayer, but in no event shall such amendments or further hearings be allowed or required after December 31, 1961, and the determination of the loss by each commission as of that date shall be final. In the event of any change in the amount of the certification furnished to the tax commissioner, each claims commission shall notify the tax commissioner of such adjustments, and appropriate changes in the remitting, refunding, or forgiveness of taxes above provided for shall be made by the tax commissioner, as the case may be; and any amount of tax refunded exceeding the amount of loss recoverable may be collected in the same manner as the tax due and payable under chapter 117 or chapter 128, as the case may be.

Each claims commission shall adopt the standards or formulas established by the University of Hawaii or its designated representatives and shall apply such standards or formulas in certifying the claims of persons suffering crop losses. Each claims commission shall not certify any claim of any person who refuses to make available such information.

SECTION 5. The tax relief authorized by this Act shall not be applicable to transferees, successors, or assignees of a taxpayer unless such transferees, successors or assignees are members of his immediate family. ACT 1

An Act Providing for the Reorganization of the Executive and Administrative Offices, Departments and Instrumentalities of the State Government, and Making an Appropriation Therefor.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Purpose. The constitution of the state of Hawaii (Article IV, Section 6) requires the allocation by law of all executive and administrative offices, departments and instrumentalities of the state government “. . . . among and within not more than twenty principal departments in such manner as to group the same according to major purposes so far as practicable.” It is the purpose of this Act to accomplish that allocation within an integrated and comprehensive plan of organization for the exercise of state functions and to provide for the orderly transfer of functions, personnel, records and equipment from existing agencies to newly created agencies, but not to form divisions, bureaus or other subdivisions within any department or office.

Furthermore, this Act provides for the participation of the executive and the legislature in implementing the reorganization hereby directed. The governor is to prepare supplemental legislative bills as may be necessary to accomplish the specific steps of reorganization within the general framework established by this Act and to formally establish the various divisions, bureaus, and agencies within the various departments created herein. The legislature is then to consider and act upon such bills during succeeding legislative sessions in 1960 and 1961 and initiate such other legislation as it may deem desirable. Such procedure is provided in the realization that reorganization of the government of Hawaii is a joint responsibility of the executive and the legislative branches.

SECTION 2. Title. This Act may be cited as the Hawaii State Government Reorganization Act of 1959.

SECTION 3. Structure of government. Under the supervision of the governor, all executive and administrative offices, departments and instrumentalities of the state government and their respective functions, powers and duties shall be allocated among and within the following principal departments which are hereby established:

1. Department of planning and research (Section 10)
2. Department of personnel services (Section 11)
3. Department of accounting and general services (Section 12)
4. Department of the attorney general (Section 13)
5. Department of budget and review (Section 14)
6. Department of treasury and regulation (Section 15)
7. Department of taxation (Section 16)
8. University of Hawaii (Section 17)
9. Department of education (Section 18)
10. Department of health (Section 19)
11. Department of social services (Section 20)
12. Department of land and natural resources (Section 21)
13. Department of agriculture and conservation (Section 22)
14. Department of Hawaiian home lands (Section 24)
15. Department of economic development (Section 25)
16. Department of transportation (Section 26)

17. Department of labor and industrial relations (Section 27)
18. Department of defense (Section 28)

SECTION 4. Selection and terms of single executives as heads of departments. Except as otherwise provided by the constitution of the state of Hawaii or by this Act, each principal department shall be headed by a single executive, who shall be nominated and, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appointed by the governor, for a term to expire at the end of the term for which the governor was elected. A vacancy occurring during a term shall be filled for the unexpired balance of the term, subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 6 of the constitution of the state of Hawaii. The governor may, by and with the consent of the senate, remove such single executive.

SECTION 5. Selection and terms of members of boards and commissions. The members of each board and commission established by law shall be nominated and, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appointed by the governor. Unless otherwise provided by this act or by law hereafter enacted, the terms of such members shall be for four years; provided, that the governor may reduce the terms of those initially appointed so as to provide, as nearly as can be, for the expiration of an equal number of terms at intervals of one year for each board and commission. Each term shall commence on January 1 and expire on December 31. After the effective date of this Act, no person shall be appointed consecutively to more than two terms as a member of the same board or commission; provided, that membership on any board or commission shall not exceed eight consecutive years.

A vacancy occurring in the membership of any board or commission during a term shall be filled for the unexpired term thereof, subject to the provisions of Article IV, Section 6 of the constitution of the state of Hawaii.

The governor may remove or suspend for cause any member of any board or commission after due notice and public hearing.

Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the provisions of this section shall apply to every board and commission established by this Act, or existing or established after the effective date of this Act. The term of each member of any board or commission existing on the effective date of this Act shall terminate on December 31, 1959. All new appointments to such board or commission shall thereafter be made in accordance with the provisions of this section.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to ex officio members of boards and commissions or to the board of trustees of the employees' retirement system or to the several county police and liquor commissions.

An employee of the state who does not have tenure and who may be transferred or appointed to a civil service position as a consequence of this Act shall become a civil service employee without the loss of salary, seniority, prior service credit, vacation, sick leave or other employee benefits or privileges and without the necessity of examination; provided, that such employee or officer possesses the minimum qualifications for the position to which he is transferred or appointed.

In the event that an office or position held by any officer or employee having tenure is abolished, such officer or employee shall not thereby be separated from public employment, but shall remain in the employment of the state with the same pay and classification and shall be transferred to some other office or position for which such officer or employee is eligible under the personnel laws of the state as determined by the head of the department or the governor.

SECTION 33. Transfer of records, equipment, appropriation and other property. No suit or prosecution pending at the time this Act takes effect shall be affected by this Act. The right of any administrative officer to institute proceedings for prosecution for an offense or an action to recover a penalty or forfeiture shall henceforth be vested in the head of the department or some person designated by the head of the department or as may be directed by law.

SECTION 36. Appeals. The right of appeal from administrative actions or determinations as provided by law shall not be impaired by this Act.

Except as otherwise provided by this Act, wherever a right of appeal from administrative actions or determinations is provided by law to or from any officer, board, department, bureau, commission, administrative agency or instrumentality of the state which, or any of the functions of which, is transferred by this Act to a department established by this Act, such right of appeal shall lie to or from the department, or the subdivision, bureau or officer of the department, to which such transfer is made. Such right of appeal shall exist to the same extent and in accordance with the procedures as immediately prior to the effective date of this Act.

If the provisions of the preceding paragraph relating to appeals cannot be effected by reason of the abolishment, splitting or shifting of functions or otherwise, the right of appeal shall lie to the circuit courts of the state pursuant to the Hawaii Rules of Civil Procedure.

SECTION 37. Assignment of functions. Any executive or administrative function of the state government that may not have been allocated to a principal department by this Act shall be assigned by the governor to that department which he deems can most appropriately and effectively perform such function.

Any other provision of this Act to the contrary notwithstanding, the functions and powers of the police and liquor commissions of the respective counties as provided in chapters 145, 150 and 159 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii 1955, as amended, shall not be assigned by the governor to any department established by this Act.

SECTION 39. Federal aid, bond obligations; not impaired. It is the intent of this Act not to jeopardize the receipt of any federal aid nor to impair the obligation of the state or any agency thereof to the holders of any bond issued by the state or by any such agency, and to the extent, and only to the extent, necessary to effectuate this intent, the governor is authorized and empowered to modify the strict provisions of this Act, but shall promptly report any such modification with his reasons therefor to the legislature at its next session thereafter for review by the legislature.

SECTION 40. Schedule for reorganization. The governor shall appoint the heads of departments and assign the various functions as hereinabove provided by the first day of the regular legislative session of 1960. This assignment of functions shall be by executive order and shall consist of a realignment of authority and responsibility in accord with the terms of this Act and need not necessarily involve the movement of personnel or equipment, the establishment of any subdivision or bureau within a department, the revision of any job description, or other detailed matter related to the internal operation of any new department.

Provided that the implementation of the first paragraph above may, at the option of the governor, be delayed until the tenth day of the regular session of 1961 in the case of the Department of Planning and Research and the University of Hawaii if such delay is legally necessary to allow the present director of planning and president of the University of Hawaii to continue to hold their positions. Provided further that where the transfer or assignment of any particular function or functions within a department presents special and particular administrative or legal difficulties, the governor may delay the effective date of that particular transfer until July 1, 1960, and shall present the reasons therefor to the 1960 regular session. The allocation of all functions effective during the fiscal year starting July 1, 1960, shall be reflected in the governor's budget recommendations which will be submitted 20 days prior to the regular session of 1960.

The governor shall commence with the establishment of subdivisions or bureaus within the departments, and he shall submit to the legislature twenty days before the regular session in 1960 convenes, such bills as he may then have prepared, in the form of amendments to the Revised Laws of Hawaii 1955, as amended, which will implement the terms of this Act and the allocation of functions and duties among the subdivisions or bureaus within the departments.

Notwithstanding anything in this Act to the contrary, the abolition or transfer of any officer, board, department, bureau, commission, administrative agency or instrumentality of the state, or of any function thereof, provided by this Act, shall be accomplished within the time specified in section 40 by executive order or orders issued by the governor.

Until so abolished or transferred, each officer, board, department, bureau, commission, administrative agency or instrumentality of the state shall continue to discharge its duties and functions with the same personnel and to the same extent as immediately prior to the effective date of this Act.

SECTION 42. Amendment of conflicting laws. All laws and parts of laws heretofore enacted which are in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby amended to conform herewith. All acts passed during this special session 1959, whether enacted before or after the passage of this Act, shall be amended to conform to this Act, unless such acts specifically provide that the Hawaii State Government Reorganization Act of 1959 is being amended.

SECTION 43. Construction; separability. This Act shall be liberally construed in order to accomplish the purposes set forth in section 1. Any portion of this Act judicially declared to be invalid shall not affect the remaining portions.

The sum of $41,500 or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to be expended by the budget bureau under the direction of the governor to effectuate the purposes of this Act. The budget bureau shall allocate any part of such appropriation for the salaries of single executives who are heads of departments and their personal staff, and for their equipment and supplies for whom and for which no other provision is made. THE ADMISSION ACT
PUBLIC LAW 86-3

STATE CONSTITUTION

THE ADMISSION ACT

PUBLIC LAW 86-3, 86TH CONGRESS

An Act to Provide for the Admission of the State of Hawaii into the Union.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, subject to the provisions of this Act, and upon issuance of the proclamation required by section 7(c) of this Act, the State of Hawaii is hereby declared to be a State of the United States of America, is declared admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the other States in all respects whatever, and the constitution formed pursuant to the provisions of the Act of the Territorial Legislature of Hawaii entitled "An Act to provide for a constitutional convention, the adoption of a State constitution, and the forwarding of the same to the Congress of the United States, and appropriating money therefor", approved May 20, 1949 (Act 334, Session Laws of Hawaii, 1949), and adopted by a vote of the people of Hawaii in the election held on November 7, 1950, is hereby found to be republican in form and in conformity with the Constitution of the United States and the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and is hereby accepted, ratified, and confirmed.

SEC. 2. The State of Hawaii shall consist of all the islands, together with their appurtenant reefs and territorial waters, included in the Territory of Hawaii on the date of enactment of this Act, except the atoll known as Palmyra Island, together with its appurtenant reefs and territorial waters, but said State shall not be deemed to include the Midway Islands, Johnston Island, Sand Island (offshore from Johnston Island) or Kingman Reef, together with their appurtenant reefs and territorial waters.

SEC. 3. The constitution of the State of Hawaii shall always be republican in form and shall not be repugnant to the Constitution of the United States and the principles of the Declaration of Independence.

SEC. 4. As a compact with the United States relating to the management and disposition of the Hawaiian home lands, the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended, shall be adopted as a provision of the Constitution of said State, as provided in section 7, subsection (b) of this Act, subject to amendment or repeal only with the consent of the United States, and in no other manner: Provided, That (1) sections 202, 213, 219, 220, 222, 224, and 225 and other provisions relating to administration, and paragraph (2) of section 204, sections 206 and 212, and other provisions relating to the powers and duties of officers other than those charged with the administration of said Act, may be amended in the constitution, or in the manner required for State legislation, but the Hawaiian home-loan fund, the Hawaiian home-operating fund, and the Hawaiian home-development fund shall not be reduced or impaired by any such amendment, whether made in the constitution or in the manner required for State legislation, and the encumbrances authorized to be placed on Hawaiian home lands by officers other than those charged with the administration of said Act, shall not be increased, except with the consent of the United States; (2) that any amendment to increase the benefits to lessees of Hawaiian home lands may be made in the constitution, or in the manner required for State legislation, but the qualifications of lessees shall not be changed except with the consent of the United States; and (3) that all proceeds and income from the "available lands", as defined by said Act, shall be used only in carrying out the provisions of said Act.

SEC. 5. (a) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the State of Hawaii and its political subdivisions, as the case may be, shall succeed to the title of the Territory of Hawaii and its subdivisions in those lands and other properties in which the Territory and its subdivisions now hold title.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) and (d) of this section, the United States grants to the State of Hawaii, effective upon its admission into the Union, the United States' title to all the public lands and other public property within the boundaries of the State of Hawaii, title to which is held by the United States immediately prior to its admission into the Union. The grant hereby made shall be in lieu of any and all grants provided for new States by provisions of law other than this Act, and such grants shall not extend to the State of Hawaii.

(c) Any lands and other properties that, on the date Hawaii is admitted into the Union, are set aside pursuant to law for the use of the United States under any (1) Act of Congress, (2) Executive order, (3) proclamation of the President, or (4) proclamation of the Governor of Hawaii shall remain the property of the United States subject only to the limitations, if any, imposed under (1), (2), (3), or (4), as the case may be.

(d) Any public lands or other public property that is conveyed to the State of Hawaii by subsection (b) of this section but that, immediately prior to the admission of said State into the Union, is controlled by the United States pursuant to permit, license, or permission, written or verbal, from the Territory of Hawaii or any department thereof may, at any time during the five years following the admission of Hawaii into the Union, be set aside by Act of Congress or by Executive order of the President, made pursuant to law, for the use of the United States, and the lands or property so set aside shall, subject only to valid rights then existing, be the property of the United States.

(e) Within five years from the date Hawaii is admitted into the Union, each Federal agency having control over any land or property that is retained by the United States pursuant to subsections (c) and (d) of this section shall report to the President the facts regarding its continued need for such land or property, and if the President determines that the land or property is no longer needed by the United States it shall be conveyed to the State of Hawaii.

(f) The lands granted to the State of Hawaii by subsection (b) of this section and public lands retained by the United States under subsections (c) and (d) and later conveyed to the State under subsection (e), together with the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of any such lands and the income therefrom, shall be held by said State as a public trust for the support of the public schools and other public educational institutions, for the betterment of the conditions of native Hawaiians, as defined in the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended, for the development of farm and home ownership on as widespread a basis as possible for the making of public improvements, and for the provision of lands for public use. Such lands, proceeds, and income shall be managed and disposed of for one or more of the foregoing purposes in such manner as the constitution and laws of said State may provide, and their use for any other object shall constitute a breach of trust for which suit may be brought by the United States. The schools and other educational institutions supported, in whole or in part out of such public trust shall forever remain under the exclusive control of said State; and no part of the proceeds or income from the lands granted under this Act shall be used for the support of any sectarian or denominational school, college, or university.

(g) As used in this Act, the term "lands and other properties" includes public lands and other public property, and the term "public lands and other public property" means, and is limited to, the lands and properties that were ceded to the United States by the Republic of Hawaii under the joint resolution of annexation approved July 7, 1898 (30 Stat. 750), or that have been acquired in exchange for lands or properties so ceded.

(h) All laws of the United States reserving to the United States the free use or enjoyment of property which vests in or is conveyed to the State of Hawaii or its political subdivisions pursuant to subsection (a), (b), or (e) of this section or reserving the right to alter, amend, or repeal laws relating thereto shall cease to be effective upon the admission of the State of Hawaii into the Union.

(i) The Submerged Lands Act of 1953 (Public Law 31, Eighty-third Congress, first session; 67 Stat. 29) and the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act of 1953 (Public Law 212, Eighty-third Congress, first session, 67 Stat. 462) shall be applicable to the State of Hawaii, and the said State shall have the same rights as do existing States thereunder.

SEC. 6. As soon as possible after the enactment of this Act, it shall be the duty of the President of the United States to certify such fact to the Governor of the Territory of Hawaii. Thereupon the Governor of the Territory shall, within thirty days after receipt of the official notification of such approval, issue his proclamation for the elections, as hereinafter provided, for officers of all State elective offices provided for by the constitution of the proposed State of Hawaii, and for two Senators and one Representative in Congress. In the first election of Senators from said State the two senatorial offices shall be separately identified and designated, and no person may be a candidate for both offices. No identification or designation of either of the two senatorial offices, however, shall refer to or be taken to refer to the term of that office, nor shall any such identification or designation in any way impair the privilege of the Senate to determine the class to which each of the Senators elected shall be assigned.

SEC. 7. (a) The proclamation of the Governor of Hawaii required by section 6 shall provide for the holding of a primary election and a general election and at such elections the officers required to be elected as provided in section 6 shall be chosen by the people. Such elections shall be held, and the qualifications of voters thereat shall be, as prescribed by the constitution of the proposed State of Hawaii for the election of members of the proposed State legislature. The returns thereof shall be made and certified in such manner as the constitution of the proposed State of Hawaii may prescribe. The Governor of Hawaii shall certify the results of said elections, as so ascertained, to the President of the United States.

(b) At an election designated by proclamation of the Governor of Hawaii, which may be either the primary or the general election held pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, or a Territorial general election, or a special election, there shall be submitted to the electors qualified to vote in said election, for adoption or rejection, the following propositions:

“(1) Shall Hawaii immediately be admitted into the Union as a State?

“(2) The boundaries of the State of Hawaii shall be as prescribed in the Act of Congress approved , and all claims of this State to any areas of land or sea outside the boundaries so prescribed are hereby irrevocably relinquished to the United States.
(Date of approval of this Act)

“(3) All provisions of the Act of Congress approved

reserving rights or powers to the United States, as well as those prescribing the terms or conditions of the grants of lands or other property therein made to the State of Hawaii are consented to fully by said State and its people.”

In the event the foregoing propositions are adopted at said election by a majority of the legal votes cast on said submission, the proposed constitution of the proposed State of Hawaii, ratified by the people at the election held on November 7, 1950, shall be deemed amended as follows: Section 1 of article XIII of said proposed constitution shall be deemed amended so as to contain the language of section 2 of this Act in lieu of any other language; article XI shall be deemed to include the provisions of section 4 of this Act; and section 8 of article XIV shall be deemed amended so as to contain the language of the third proposition above stated in lieu of any other language, and section 10 of article XVI shall be deemed amended by inserting the words “at which officers for all state elective offices provided for by this constitution and two Senators and one Representative in Congress shall be nominated and elected” in lieu of the words “at which officers for all state elective offices provided for by this constitution shall be nominated and elected; but the officers so to be elected shall in any event include two Senators and two Representatives to the Congress, and unless and until otherwise required by law, said Representatives shall be elected at large”.

In the event the foregoing propositions are not adopted at said election by a majority of the legal votes cast on said submission, the provisions of this Act shall cease to be effective.

The Governor of Hawaii is hereby authorized and directed to take such action as may be necessary or appropriate to insure the submission of said propositions to the people. The return of the votes cast on said propositions shall be made by the election officers directly to the Secretary of Hawaii, who shall certify the results of the submission to the Governor. The Governor shall certify the results of said submission, as so ascertained, to the President of the United States.

(c) If the President shall find that the propositions set forth in the preceding subsection have been duly adopted by the people of Hawaii, the President, upon certification of the returns of the election of the officers required to be elected as provided in section 6 of this Act, shall thereupon issue his proclamation announcing the results of said election as so ascertained. Upon the issuance of said proclamation by the President, the State of Hawaii shall be deemed admitted into the Union as provided in section 1 of this Act.

Until the said State is so admitted into the Union, the persons holding legislative, executive, and judicial office in, under, or by authority of the government of said Territory, and the Delegate in Congress thereof, shall continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices. Upon the issuance of said proclamation by the President of the United States and the admission of the State of Hawaii into the Union, the officers elected at said election, and qualified under the provisions of the constitution and laws of said State, shall proceed to exercise all the functions pertaining to their offices in, under, or by authority of the government of said State, and officers not required to be elected at said initial election shall be selected or continued in office as provided by the constitution and laws of said State. The Governor of said State shall certify the election of the Senators and Representative in the manner required by law, and the said Senators and Representative shall be entitled to be admitted to seats in Congress and to all the rights and privileges of Senators and Representatives of other States in the Congress of the United States.

SEC. 8. The State of Hawaii upon its admission into the Union shall be entitled to one Representative until the taking effect of the next reapportionment, and such Representative shall be in addition to the membership of the House of Representatives as now prescribed by law: Provided, That such temporary increase in the membership shall not operate to either increase or decrease the permanent membership of the House of Representatives as prescribed in the Act of August 8, 1911 (37 Stat. 13), nor shall such temporary increase affect the basis of apportionment established by the Act of November 15, 1941 (55 Stat. 761; 2 U.S.C., sec. 2a), for the Eighty-third Congress and each Congress thereafter.

SEC. 9. Effective upon the admission of the State of Hawaii into the Union—

(a) the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii established by and existing under title 28 of the United States Code shall thenceforth be a court of the United States with judicial power derived from article III, section 1, of the Constitution of the United States: Provided, however, That the terms of office of the district judges for the district of Hawaii then in office shall terminate upon the effective date of this section and the President, pursuant to sections 133 and 134 of title 28, United States Code, as amended by this Act, shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, two district judges for the said district who shall hold office during good behavior;

(b) the last paragraph of section 133 of title 28, United States Code, is repealed; and

SEC. 10. Effective upon the admission of the State of Hawaii into the Union the second paragraph of section 451 of title 28, United States Code, is amended by striking out the words "including the district courts of the United States for the districts of Hawaii and Puerto Rico," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "including the United States District for the District of Puerto Rico,".

SEC. 12. No writ, action, indictment, cause, or proceeding pending in any court of the Territory of Hawaii or in the United States District court for the District of Hawaii shall abate by reason of the admission of said State into the Union, but the same shall be transferred to and proceeded with in such appropriate State courts as shall be established under the constitution of said State, or shall continue in the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii, as the nature of the case may require. And no writ, action, indictment, cause or proceeding shall abate by reason of any change in the courts, but shall be proceeded with in the State or United States courts according to the laws thereof, respectively. And the appropriate State courts shall be the successors of the courts of the Territory as to all cases arising within the limits embraced within the jurisdiction of such courts, respectively, with full power to proceed with the same, and award mesne or final process therein, and all the files, records, indictments, and proceedings relating to any such writ, action, indictment, cause or proceeding shall be transferred to such appropriate State courts and the same shall be proceeded with therein in due course of law.

All civil causes of action and all criminal offenses which shall have arisen or been committed prior to the admission of said State, but as to which no writ, action, indictment or proceeding shall be pending at the date of such admission, shall be subject to prosecution in the appropriate State courts or in the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii in like manner, to the same extent, and with like right of appellate review, as if said State had been created and said State courts had been established prior to the accrual of such causes of action or the commission of such offenses. The admission of said State shall effect no change in the substantive or criminal law governing such causes of action and criminal offenses which shall have arisen or been committed; and such of said criminal offenses as shall have been committed against the laws of the Territory shall be tried and punished by the appropriate courts of said State, and such as shall have been committed against the laws of the United States shall be tried and punished in the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii.

SEC. 13. Parties shall have the same rights of appeal from and appellate review of final decisions of the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii or the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii in any case finally decided prior to admission of said State into the Union, whether or not an appeal therefrom shall have been perfected prior to such admission, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and the Supreme Court of the United States shall have the same jurisdiction therein, as by law provided prior to admission of said State into the Union, and any mandate issued subsequent to the admission of said State shall be to the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii or a court of the State, as may be appropriate. Parties shall have the same rights of appeal from and appellate review of all orders, judgments, and decrees of the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii and of the Supreme Court of the State of Hawaii as successor to the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii, in any case pending at the time of admission of said State into the Union, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit and the Supreme Court of the United States shall have the same jurisdiction therein, as by law provided in any case arising subsequent to the admission of said State into the Union.

SEC. 14. Effective upon the admission of the State of Hawaii into the Union—

(a) title 28, United States Code, section 1252, is amended by striking out "Hawaii and" from the clause relating to courts of record;

(b) title 28, United States Code, section 1293, is amended by striking out the words "First and Ninth Circuits" and by inserting in lieu thereof "First Circuit", and by striking out the words, "supreme courts of Puerto Rico and Hawaii, respectively" and inserting in lieu thereof "supreme court of Puerto Rico";

(c) title 28, United States Code, section 1294, as amended, is further amended by striking out paragraph (4) thereof and by renumbering paragraphs (5) and (6) accordingly;

(d) the first paragraph of section 373 of title 28, United States Code, as amended, is further amended by striking out the words "United States District Courts for the districts of Hawaii or Puerto Rico," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico,"; and by striking out the words "and any justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii": Provided, That the amendments made by this subsection shall not affect the rights of any judge or justice who may have retired before the effective date of this subsection: And provided further, That service as a judge of the District Court for the Territory of Hawaii or as a judge of the United States District Court for the District of Hawaii or as a justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii or as a judge of the circuit courts of the Territory of Hawaii shall be included in computing under section 371, 372, or 373 of title 28, United States Code, the aggregate years of judicial service of any person who is in office as a district judge for the District of Hawaii on the date of enactment of this Act;

(e) section 92 of the Act of April 30, 1900 (ch. 339, 31 Stat. 159), as amended, and the Act of May 29, 1928 (ch. 904, 45 Stat. 997), as amended, are repealed;

(f) section 86 of the Act approved April 30, 1900 (ch. 339, 31 Stat. 158), as amended, is repealed;

(g) section 3771 of title 18, United States Code, as heretofore amended, is further amended by striking out from the first paragraph of such section the words "Supreme Courts of Hawaii and Puerto Rico" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Supreme Court of Puerto Rico";

THE ADMISSION ACT

(h) section 3772 of title 18, United States Code, as heretofore amended, is further amended by striking out from the first paragraph of such section the words "Supreme Courts of Hawaii and Puerto Rico" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Supreme Court of Puerto Rico";

(i) section 91 of title 28, United States Code, as heretofore amended, is further amended by inserting after "Kure Island" and before "Baker Island" the words "Palmyra Island,"; and

(j) the Act of June 15, 1950 (64 Stat. 217; 48 U.S.C., sec. 644a), is amended by inserting after "Kure Island" and before "Baker Island" the words "Palmyra Island,".

SEC. 15. All Territorial laws in force in the Territory of Hawaii at the time of its admission into the Union shall continue in force in the State of Hawaii, except as modified or changed by this Act or by the constitution of the State, and shall be subject to repeal or amendment by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii, except as provided in section 4 of this Act with respect to the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended; and the laws of the United States shall have the same force and effect within the said State as elsewhere within the United States: Provided, That, except as herein otherwise provided, a Territorial law enacted by the Congress shall be terminated two years after the date of admission of the State of Hawaii into the Union or upon the effective date of any law enacted by the State of Hawaii which amends or repeals it, whichever may occur first. As used in this section, the term "Territorial laws" includes (in addition to laws enacted by the Territorial Legislature of Hawaii) all laws or parts thereof enacted by the Congress the validity of which is dependent solely upon the authority of the Congress to provide for the government of Hawaii prior to its admission into the Union, and the term "laws of the United States" includes all laws or parts thereof enacted by the Congress that (1) apply to or within Hawaii at the time of its admission into the Union, (2) are not "Territorial laws" as defined in this paragraph, and (3) are not in conflict with any other provision of this Act.

SEC. 16. (a) Notwithstanding the admission of the State of Hawaii into the Union, the United States shall continue to have sole and exclusive jurisdiction over the area which may then or thereafter be included in Hawaii National Park, saving, however, to the State of Hawaii the same rights as are reserved to the Territory of Hawaii by section 1 of the Act of April 19, 1930 (46 Stat. 227), and saving, further, to persons then or thereafter residing within such area the right to vote at all elections held within the political subdivisions where they respectively reside. Upon the admission of said State all references to the Territory of Hawaii in said Act or in other laws relating to Hawaii National Park shall be deemed to refer to the State of Hawaii. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to affect the ownership and control by the United States of any lands or other property within Hawaii National Park which may now belong to, or which may hereafter be acquired by, the United States.

(b) Notwithstanding the admission of the State of Hawaii into the Union, authority is reserved in the United States, subject to the proviso hereinafter set forth, for the exercise by the Congress of the United States of the power of exclusive legislation, as provided by article I, section 8, clause 17, of the Constitution of the United States, in all cases whatsoever over such tracts or parcels of land as, immediately prior to the admission of said State, are controlled or owned by the United States and held for Defense or Coast Guard purposes, whether such lands were acquired by cession and transfer to the United States by the Republic of Hawaii and set aside by Act of Congress or by Executive order or proclamation of the President or the Governor of Hawaii for the use of the United States, or were acquired by the United States by purchase, condemnation, donation, exchange, or otherwise: Provided, (i) That the State of Hawaii shall always have the right to serve civil or criminal process within the said tracts or parcels of land in suits or prosecutions for or on account of rights acquired, obligations incurred, or crimes committed within the said State but outside of the said tracts or parcels of land; (ii) that the reservation of authority in the United States for the exercise by the Congress of the United States of the power of exclusive legislation over the lands aforesaid shall not operate to prevent such lands from being a part of the State of Hawaii, or to prevent the said State from exercising over or upon such lands, concurrently with the United States, any jurisdiction whatsoever which it would have in the absence of such reservation of authority and which is consistent with the laws hereafter enacted by the Congress pursuant to such reservation of authority; and (iii) that such power of exclusive legislation shall vest and remain in the United States only so long as the particular tract or parcel of land involved is controlled or owned by the United States and used for Defense or Coast Guard purposes: Provided, however, That the United States shall continue to have sole and exclusive jurisdiction over such military installations as have been heretofore or hereafter determined to be critical areas as delineated by the President of the United States and/or the Secretary of Defense.

SEC. 17. The next to last sentence of the first paragraph of section 2 of the Federal Reserve Act (38 Stat. 251) as amended by section 19 of the Act of July 7, 1958, (72 Stat. 339, 350) is amended by inserting after the word "Alaska" the words "or Hawaii."

SEC. 18. (a) Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as depriving the Federal Maritime Board of the exclusive jurisdiction heretofore conferred on it over common carriers engaged in transportation by water between any port in the State of Hawaii and other ports in the United States, or possessions, or is conferring on the Interstate Commerce Commission jurisdiction over transportation by water between any such ports.

(b) Effective on the admission of the State of Hawaii into the Union—

SEC. 19. Nothing contained in this Act shall operate to confer United States nationality, nor to terminate nationality heretofore lawfully acquired, or restore nationality heretofore lost under any law of the United States or under any treaty to which the United States is or was a party.

SEC. 20. (a) Section 101(a)(36) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (66 Stat. 170, 8 U.S.C., sec. 1101(a)(36)) is amended by deleting the word "Hawaii,".

(b) Section 212(d)(7) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (66 Stat. 188, 8 U.S.C. 1182(d)(7)) is amended by deleting from the first sentence thereof the word "Hawaii," and by deleting the proviso to said first sentence.

(c) The first sentence of section 310(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended (66 Stat. 239, 8 U.S.C. 1421(a), 72 Stat. 351) is further amended by deleting the words "for the Territory of Hawaii, and".

Legislative Power

SECTION 1. The legislative power of the State shall be vested in a legislature, which shall consist of two houses, a senate and a house of representatives. First senatorial district: that portion of the island of Hawaii known as Puna, Hilo and Hamakua, five;

Third senatorial district: the islands of Maui, Molokai, Lanai and Kahoolawe, five;

Reapportionment of House

SECTION 4. On or before June 1 of the year 1959, and of each tenth year thereafter, the governor shall reapportion the members of the house of representatives in the following manner: The total number of representatives shall first be reapportioned among four basic areas, namely, (1) the island of Hawaii, (2) the islands of Maui, Molokai, Lanai and Kahoolawe, (3) the island of Oahu and all other islands not specifically enumerated, and (4) the islands of Kauai and Niihau, on the basis of the number of voters registered at the last preceding general election in each of such basic areas and computed by the method known as the method of equal proportions, no basic area to receive less than one member. Upon the determination of the total number of representatives to which each basic area is entitled, such total shall be reapportioned among the one or more representative districts within each basic area on the basis of the number of voters registered at the last preceding general election within each of such representative districts and computed by the method known as the method of equal proportions, no representative district to receive less than one member. Upon any reapportionment, should the total number of voters registered in any representative district be less than one-half of the quotient obtained by dividing the total number of voters registered in the State by the total number of members to which the house is entitled, then, as part of such reapportionment, the basic area within which such representative district lies shall be redistricted by the governor in such manner that the total number of voters registered in each new representative district therein shall be more than one-half of such quotient.

SECTION 5. The members of the legislature shall be elected at general elections. The term of office of members of the house of representatives shall be two years beginning with their election and ending on the day of the next general election, and the term of office of members of the senate shall be four years beginning with their election and ending on the day of the second general election after their election.

Qualifications of Members

SECTION 7. No person shall be eligible to serve as a member of the senate unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years, have been a resident of the State for not less than three years and be a qualified voter of the senatorial district from which he seeks to be elected. No person shall be eligible to serve as a member of the house of representatives unless he shall have attained the age of twenty-five years, have been a resident of the State for not less than three years and be a qualified voter of the representative district from which he seeks to be elected.

Privileges
of Members

SECTION 8. No member of the legislature shall be held to answer before any other tribunal for any statement made or action taken in the exercise of his legislative functions; and members of the legislature shall, in all cases except felony or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the sessions of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same.

Disqualifications
of Members

SECTION 9. No member of the legislature shall hold any other public office under the State, nor shall he, during the term for which he is elected or appointed, be elected or appointed to any public office or employment which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased, by legislative act during such term. The term "public office", for the purposes of this section, shall not include notaries public, reserve police officers or officers of emergency organizations for civilian defense or disaster relief. The legislature may prescribe further disqualifications.

Salary and Allowances

SECTION 10. The members of the legislature shall receive such salary and allowances as may be prescribed by law, but any increase or decrease in the amount thereof shall not apply to the legislature which enacted the same. No salary shall be payable when the senate alone is convened in special session, or when the legislature convenes in special session pursuant to Section 17 of this article.

Sessions

SECTION 11. Regular sessions of the legislature shall be held annually. The governor may convene the legislature, or the senate alone, in special session. All sessions shall be held at the capital of the State. In case the capital shall be unsafe, the governor may direct that any session shall be held at some other place. Regular sessions in odd numbered years shall be known as "general sessions" and regular sessions in even numbered years shall be known as "budget sessions".

Budget

At budget sessions the legislature shall be limited to the consideration and enactment of the general appropriations bill for the succeeding fiscal year and bills to authorize proposed capital expenditures, revenue bills necessary therefor, urgency measures deemed necessary in the public interest, bills calling elections, proposed constitutional amendments and bills to provide for the expenses of such session and the special session to be convened thereafter in accordance with the provisions of Section 17 of this article. The legislature may also consider and act upon matters relating to the impeachment or removal of officers. No urgency measure shall be considered unless a statement of facts constituting such urgency shall be set forth in one section thereof and until such section shall have been first approved by each house. The approval of such section and the final passage of such measure in each house shall require a two-thirds vote of all the members to which such house is entitled, taken by ayes and noes and entered upon its journal.

Sessions;
Commencement;
Duration

Regular sessions shall commence at 10:00 o'clock a. m., on the third Wednesday in February. General sessions shall be limited to a period of sixty days and budget sessions and special sessions to a period of thirty days, but the governor may extend any session for not more than thirty days. Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in computing the number of days of any session.

Adjournment

SECTION 12. Neither house shall adjourn during any session of the legislature for more than three days, or sine die, without the consent of the other.

Organization; Discipline;
Rules;
Procedure

SECTION 13. Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members and shall have, for misconduct, disorderly behavior or neglect of duty of any member, power to punish such member by censure or, upon a two-thirds vote of all the members to which such house is entitled, by suspension or expulsion of such member. Each house shall choose its own officers, determine the rules of its proceedings and keep a journal. The ayes and noes of the members on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of the members present, be entered upon the journal.

Twenty days after a bill has been referred to a committee in either house, the same may be recalled from such committee by the affirmative vote of one-third of the members to which such house is entitled.

Quorum; Compulsory Attendance

SECTION 14. A majority of the number of members to which each house is entitled shall constitute a quorum of such house for the conduct of ordinary business, of which quorum a majority vote shall suffice; but the final passage of a bill in each house shall require the vote of a majority of all the members to which such house is entitled, taken by ayes and noes and entered upon its journal. A smaller number than a quorum may adjourn from day to day and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

Bills;
Enactment

SECTION 15. No law shall be passed except by bill. Each law shall embrace but one subject, which shall be expressed in its title. The enacting clause of each law shall be, "Be it enacted by the legislature of the State of Hawaii."

Passage of Bills

SECTION 16. No bill shall become law unless it shall pass three readings in each house, on separate days. Every bill when passed by the house in which it originated, or in which amendments thereto shall have originated, shall immediately be certified by the presiding officer and clerk and sent to the other house for consideration.

Approval or Veto

SECTION 17. Every bill which shall have passed the legislature shall be certified by the presiding officers and clerks of both houses and shall thereupon be presented to the governor. If he approves it, he shall sign it and it shall become law. If the governor does not approve such bill, he may return it, with his objections to the legislature. He may veto any specific item or items in any bill which appropriates money for specific purposes by striking out or reducing the same; but he shall veto other bills, if at all, only as a whole.

The governor shall have ten days to consider bills presented to him ten or more days before the adjournment of the legislature sine die, and if any such bill is neither signed nor returned by the governor within that time, it shall become law in like manner as if he had signed it.

Reconsideration
After
Adjournment

The governor shall have forty-five days, after the adjournment of the legislature sine die, to consider bills presented to him less than ten days before such adjournment, or presented after adjournment, and any such bill shall become law on the forty-fifth day unless the governor by proclamation shall have given ten days' notice to the legislature that he plans to return such bill with his objections on that day. The legislature may convene at or before noon on the forty-fifth day in special session, without call, for the sole purpose of acting upon any such bill returned by the governor. In case the legislature shall fail to so convene, such bill shall not become law. Any such bill may be amended to meet the governor's objections and, if so amended and passed, only one reading being required in each house for such passage, it shall be presented again to the governor, but shall become law only if he shall sign it within ten days after presentation.

Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in computing the number of days designated in this section.

Procedures
Upon Veto

SECTION 18. Upon the receipt of a veto message from the governor, each house shall enter the same at large upon its journal and proceed to reconsider the vetoed bill, or the item or items vetoed, and again vote upon such bill, or such item or items, by ayes and noes, which shall be entered upon its journal. If after such reconsideration such bill, or such item or items, shall be approved by a two-thirds vote of all members to which each house is entitled, the same shall become law.

Punishment of Non-Members

SECTION 19. Each house may punish by fine, or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, any person not a member of either house who shall be guilty of disrespect of such house by any disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence or that of any committee thereof; or who shall, on account of the exercise of any legislative function, threaten harm to the body or estate of any of the members of such house; or who shall assault, arrest or detain any witness or other person ordered to attend such house, on his way going to or returning therefrom; or who shall rescue any person arrested by order of such house.

Any person charged with such an offense shall be informed in writing of the charge made against him, and have an opportunity to present evidence and be heard in his own defense.

Impeachment

SECTION 20. The governor and lieutenant governor, and any appointive officer for whose removal the consent of the senate is required, may be removed from office upon conviction of impeachment for such causes as may be provided by law.

The house of representatives shall have the sole power of impeachment of the governor and lieutenant governor and the senate the sole power to try such impeachments, and no such officer shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members of the senate. When sitting for that purpose, the members of the senate shall be on oath or affirmation and the chief justice shall preside. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, the legislature may provide for the manner and procedure of removal by impeachment of such officers.

The legislature shall by law provide for the manner and procedure of removal by impeachment of the appointive officers.

Judgments in cases of impeachment shall not extend beyond removal from office and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under the State; but the person convicted may nevertheless be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment according to law.

ARTICLE IV

THE EXECUTIVE

Establishment of The Executive

SECTION 1. The executive power of the State shall be vested in a governor.

The governor shall be elected by the qualified voters of this State at a general election. The person receiving the highest number of votes shall be the governor. In case of a tie vote, the selection of the governor shall be determined in accordance with law.

The term of office of the governor shall begin at noon on the first Monday in December next following his election and end at noon on the first Monday in December, four years thereafter.

No person shall be eligible to the office of governor unless he shall be a qualified voter, have attained the age of thirty-five years and have been a citizen of the United States for twenty years and a resident of this State for five years next preceding his election.

The governor shall not hold any other office or employment of profit under the State or the United States during his term of office.

Lieutenant
Governor

SECTION 2. There shall be a lieutenant governor, who shall have the same qualifications as the governor. He shall be elected at the same time, for the same term, and in the same manner, as the governor. He shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law.

Compensation,
Governor,
Lieutenant
Governor

SECTION 3. The compensation of the governor and of the lieutenant governor shall be prescribed by law, but shall not be less than eighteen thousand dollars, and twelve thousand dollars, respectively, per annum. Such compensation shall not be increased or diminished for their respective terms, unless by general law applying to all salaried officers of the State. When the lieutenant governor succeeds to the office of governor, he shall receive the compensation for that office.

Succession to Governorship;
Absence or Disability of Governor

SECTION 4. When the office of governor is vacant, the lieutenant governor shall become governor. In the event of the absence of the governor from the State, or his inability to exercise and discharge the powers and duties of his office, such powers and duties shall devolve upon the lieutenant governor during such absence or disability.

When the office of lieutenant governor is vacant, or in the event of the absence of the lieutenant governor from the State, or his inability to exercise and discharge the powers and duties of his office, such powers and duties shall devolve upon such officers in such order of succession as may be provided by law.

In the event of the impeachment of the governor or of the lieutenant governor, he shall not exercise the powers of his office until acquitted.

Executive Powers

SECTION 5. The governor shall be responsible for the faithful execution of the laws. He shall be commander in chief of the armed forces of the State and may call out such forces to execute the laws, suppress or prevent insurrection or lawless violence or repel invasion. He shall, at the beginning of each session, and may, at other times, give to the legislature information concerning the affairs of the State and recommend to its consideration such measures as he shall deem expedient.

The governor may grant reprieves, commutations and pardons, after conviction, for all offenses, subject to regulation by law as to the manner of applying for the same. The legislature may, by general law, authorize the governor to grant pardons before conviction, to grant pardons for impeachment and to restore civil rights denied by reason of conviction of offenses by tribunals other than those of this State.

The governor shall appoint an administrative director to serve at his pleasure.

Executive and Administrative Offices and Departments

SECTION 6. All executive and administrative offices, departments and instrumentalities of the state government and their respective functions, powers and duties shall be allocated by law among and within not more than twenty principal departments in such manner as to group the same according to major purposes so far as practicable. Temporary commissions or agencies for special purposes may be established by law and need not be allocated within a principal department.

Each principal department shall be under the supervision of the governor and, unless otherwise provided in this constitution or by law, shall be headed by a single executive. Such single executive shall be nominated and, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appointed by the governor and he shall hold office for a term to expire at the end of the term for which the governor was elected. The governor may, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, remove such single executive.

Whenever a board, commission or other body shall be the head of a principal department of the state government, the members thereof shall be nominated and, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appointed by the governor. The term of office and removal of such members shall be as prescribed by law. Such board, commission or other body may appoint a principal executive officer, who, when authorized by law, may be ex officio a voting member thereof, and who may be removed by a majority vote of the members appointed by the governor.

The governor shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint all officers for whose election or appointment provision is not otherwise made by this constitution or by law. The legislature may provide for the suspension or removal for cause, by the governor, of any officer for whose removal the consent of the senate is required by this constitution.

When the senate is not in session and a vacancy occurs in any office, appointment to which requires the confirmation of the senate, the governor may fill the office by granting a commission which shall, unless such appointment is confirmed, expire at the end of the next session of the senate; but the person so appointed shall not be eligible for another interim appointment to such office if the appointment shall have failed of confirmation by the senate.

No person who has been nominated for appointment to any office and whose appointment has not received the consent of the senate shall be eligible to an interim appointment thereafter to such office.

All officers appointed under the provisions of this section shall be citizens of this State and shall have been residents of the State for at least three years next preceding their appointment.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 2. The supreme court shall consist of a chief justice and four associate justices. When necessary, the chief justice shall assign a judge or judges of a circuit court to serve temporarily on the supreme court. In case of a vacancy in the office of chief justice, or if he is ill, absent or otherwise unable to serve, an associate justice designated in accordance with the rules of the supreme court shall serve temporarily in his stead.

SECTION 3. The governor shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint the justices of the supreme court and the judges of the circuit courts. No nomination shall be sent to the senate, and no interim appointment shall be made when the senate is not in session, until after ten days' public notice by the governor.

No person shall be eligible to such office who shall not have been admitted to practice law before the supreme court of this State for at least ten years. TAXATION AND FINANCE

Taxing Power Inalienable

SECTION 1. The power of taxation shall never be surrendered, suspended or contracted away.

Taxation of Non-Resident Citizens

SECTION 2. The land and other property belonging to citizens of the United States residing without the State shall never be taxed at a higher rate than the lands and other property belonging to residents thereof.

Debt Limitations

SECTION 3. All bonds and other instruments of indebtedness issued by or on behalf of the State or a political subdivision thereof must be authorized by the legislature, and bonds and other instruments of indebtedness of a political subdivision must also be authorized by its governing body.

Sixty million dollars is established as the limit of the funded debt of the State at any time outstanding and unpaid. Bonds and other instruments of indebtedness in excess of such limit may be issued when authorized by a two-thirds vote of all the members to which each house of the legislature is entitled, provided such excess debt, at the time of authorization, would not cause the total of state indebtedness to exceed a sum equal to fifteen percent of the total of assessed values for tax rate purposes of real property in the State, as determined by the last tax assessment rolls pursuant to law.

Instruments of indebtedness to meet appropriations for any fiscal period in anticipation of the collection of revenues for such period or to meet casual deficits or failures of revenue, which shall be payable within one year, and bonds or other instruments of indebtedness to suppress insurrection, to repel invasion, to defend the State in war or to meet emergencies caused by disaster or act of God, may be issued by the State under legislative authorization without regard to any debt limit.

A sum equal to ten percent of the total of the assessed values for tax rate purposes of real property in any political subdivision, as determined by the last tax assessment rolls pursuant to law, is established as the limit of the funded debt of such political subdivision at any time outstanding and unpaid. The aggregate, however, of such debts contracted by any political subdivision during a fiscal year shall not exceed two percent of the total of such assessed values in such political subdivision.

Instruments of indebtedness to meet appropriations for any fiscal period in anticipation of the collection of revenues for such period or to meet casual deficits or failures of revenue, which shall be payable within one year, may be issued by any political subdivision under authorization of law and of its governing body, without regard to the limits of debt hereinabove provided.

All bonds or other instruments of indebtedness for a term exceeding one year shall be in serial form maturing in substantially equal annual installments, the first installment to mature not later than five years from the date of the issue of such series, and the last installment not later than thirty-five years from the date of such issue. Interest and principal payments shall be a first charge on the general revenues of the State or political subdivision, as the case may be.

The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to indebtedness incurred under revenue bond statutes by a public enterprise of the State or political subdivision, or by a public corporation, when the only security for such indebtedness is the revenues of such enterprise or public corporation, or to indebtedness incurred under special improvement statutes when the only security for such indebtedness is the properties benefited or improved or the assessments thereon.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the refunding of any indebtedness at any time.

The Budget

SECTION 4. Within such time prior to the opening of each regular session as may be prescribed by law, the governor shall submit to the legislature a budget setting forth a complete plan of proposed general fund expenditures and anticipated receipts of the State for the ensuing fiscal period, together with such other information as the legislature may require. The budget shall be compiled in two parts, one setting forth all proposed operating expenditures for the ensuing fiscal period and the other, all capital improvements expenditures proposed to be undertaken during such period. AMENDMENTS TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION

The Constitution of the State of Hawaii, ratified by the people at the election held on November 7, 1950, was amended or otherwise affected in the following manner when three propositions were submitted to the people in accordance with Public Law 86-3* and adopted by a majority of the legal votes cast on the submission at the primary election held on June 27, 1959.

1. Section 1 of ARTICLE XIII, STATE BOUNDARIES, CAPITAL, FLAG, was amended to contain the language of section 2 of the Admission Act, in lieu of any other language, so that it reads as follows:

"The State of Hawaii shall consist of all the islands, together with their appurtenant reefs and territorial waters, included in the Territory of Hawaii on the date of enactment of this Act; except the atoll known as Palmyra Island, together with its appurtenant reefs and territorial waters, but said State shall not be deemed to include the Midway Islands, Johnston Island, Sand Island (offshore from Johnston Island), or Kingman Reef, together with their appurtenant reefs and territorial waters."

2. Article XI, HAWAIIAN HOME LANDS, was amended to include the provisions of Section 4 of the Admission Act", which reads as follows:

*The Admission Act: Public Law 86-3, 86th Congress, AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE ADMISSION OF THE STATE OF HAWAII INTO THE UNION, Approved March 18, 1959, at Section 7(b). See page 75 of this volume.

“As a compact with the United States relating to the management and disposition of the Hawaiian home lands, the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act, 1920, as amended, shall be adopted as a provision of the Constitution of said State, as provided in section 7, subsection (b) of this Act, subject to amendment or repeal only with the consent of the United States, and in no other manner. Provided, That (1) sections 202, 213, 219, 220, 222, 224, and 225 and other provisions relating to administration, and paragraph (2) of section 204, sections 206 and 212, and other provisions relating to the powers and duties of officers other than those charged with the administration of said Act, may be amended in the constitution, or in the manner required for State legislation, but the Hawaiian home-loan fund, the Hawaiian home-operating fund, and the Hawaiian home-development fund shall not be reduced or impaired by any such amendment, whether made in the constitution or in the manner required for State legislation, and the encumbrances authorized to be placed on Hawaiian home lands by officers other than those charged with the administration of said Act, shall not be increased, except with the consent of the United States; (2) that any amendment to increase the benefits to lessees of Hawaiian home lands may be made in the constitution, or in the manner required for State legislation, but the qualifications of lessees shall not be changed except with the consent of the United States; and (3) that all proceeds and income from the ‘available lands’, as defined by said Act, shall be used only in carrying out the provisions of said Act.”

3. Section 8 of ARTICLE XIV, GENERAL AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS, was amended to contain the language of the third proposition submitted to the people, in lieu of any other language, so that it reads as follows:

“All provisions of the Act of Congress approved March 18, 1959 reserving rights or powers to the United States, as well as those prescribing the terms or conditions of the grants of lands or other property therein made to the State of Hawaii are consented to fully by said State and its people.”

4. Section 10 of ARTICLE XVI, SCHEDULE, was amended to read as follows:
“In case the people of the Territory ratify this constitution and the same is approved by the duly constituted authority of the United States whose approval thereto may be required, the governor of the Territory shall, within thirty days after receipt of the official notification of such approval, issue a proclamation for primary and final elections, as hereinafter provided, at which officers for all state elective offices provided for by this constitution and two Senators and one Representative in Congress shall be nominated and elected.”
