

ACT 181

A Bill for an Act Relating to the Compensation of Public Employees.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 5-76 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii 1955 is hereby amended by adding thereto a new paragraph reading as follows:

“Any employee of the State or any county, or independent board or commission thereof, who is on stand-by duty after his normal hours of work, or on weekends or holidays, shall, for each day on which he renders such service, be paid, in addition to his basic compensation, an amount equal to five per cent of his daily rate of compensation. An employee shall be deemed to be on stand-by duty when he is assigned by the head of the department or other superior to remain at home or at any other designated place for a specified period for the purpose of responding to calls for immediate service. The fact that an employee may be called to duty in cases of emergency shall not, unless such employee is on stand-by duty, entitle such employee to the additional five per cent compensation; but, if called to duty, he shall be entitled to overtime compensation.”

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 1963.

(Approved June 3, 1963.) H.B. 148.
