

ACT 66

A Bill for an Act Amending Section 143-6 (f) of the Revised Laws of Hawaii 1955, as Amended, Relating to the Central Relocation Office.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 143-6 (f) of the Revised Laws of Hawaii 1955, as amended, is hereby further amended by amending subparagraph (f) thereof to read as follows:

“(f) To establish and operate a central relocation office which shall perform such functions and activities as may be necessary and proper for the satisfactory relocation of families, individuals, businesses, and nonprofit organizations, incorporated and unincorporated, displaced by any governmental action to decent, safe and sanitary locations at rents or prices within the financial means of such displaced families, individuals, businesses, and nonprofit organizations. To the extent that special funds are made available by the State or the county, the agency may authorize the central relocation office to make relocation payments for actual moving costs to families, individuals, businesses, and nonprofit organizations, incorporated or unincorporated, displaced from other than urban renewal projects; provided, that such payments shall not exceed $100 for each displaced family or individual and $300 for each displaced business (including the operation of a farm) or nonprofit organization; provided further, that such payments shall not be made to recipients of any other relocation payments made by any government or agency thereof for the same displacement. In the case of a business, the allowable expenses for transportation shall not exceed the cost of moving fifty miles from the point from which such business is being displaced.”

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

(Approved May 20, 1963.) H.B. 764.
