

ACT 170

S. B. NO. 1283-70

A Bill for an Act Relating to Manpower and Full Employment.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 202-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“Sec. 202-1 Commission; appointment; tenure. The State manpower advisory committee established by the governor, July, 1963, is hereby constituted as the advisory commission on manpower and full employment. The commissioners shall be appointed as provided for in section 26-34. The governor shall appoint the chairman of the commission. The commission shall be composed of not less than 12 members and not more than 18 members. The members shall be selected on the basis of their interest in and knowledge of the interrelations amongst the technological, economic, and social systems and on the basis of their ability to contribute to solution of difficulties arising from the new techniques and the proliferation of manpower problems including the problems of the hard to employ. The members of the advisory commission shall represent labor, management, agriculture, education, training, and the public in general. The commission shall also fulfill the advisory functions specified by federal laws relating to vocational education and shall be constituted so it shall comply in all respects with the membership provisions for the State advisory council on vocational education required by the Federal Vocational Act of 1963, as amended by P. L. 90-576 and as it may be further amended from time to time.

ACT 170

The members shall serve without compensation but shall be paid per diem and travel expenses when attending meetings of the commission.”

SECTION 2. Section 202-2, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“Sec. 202-2 Duties of commission. The advisory commission on manpower and full employment shall:

- (1) Identify and assess the past effects and the current and prospective role and pace of technological change;
- (2) Identify and describe the impact of technological and economic change on production and employment, including new job requirements and the major types of worker displacement, both technological and economic, which are likely to occur during the next ten years; the specific industries, occupations, and geographic areas which are most likely to be involved; and the social and economic effects of these developments on the State’s economy, manpower, communities, families, social structure, and human values;
- (3) Define those areas of unmet community and human needs toward which application of new technologies might most effectively be directed;
- (4) Recommend specific administrative and legislative steps which it believes should be taken by the State government in meeting its responsibilities (A) to promote occupational training and skill development programs appropriate to the State’s needs and resources, (B) to encourage a program of useful research into the State’s manpower requirements, development, and utilization, (C) to support and promote technological change in the interest of continued economic growth and improved well-being of our people, (D) to continue and adopt measures which will facilitate occupational adjustment and geographical mobility, and insure full employment, and (E) to explore and evaluate various methods of sharing the cost of preventing and alleviating the adverse impact of change on displaced workers;
- (5) Create public awareness and understanding of the problems and potentials of the new technologies;
- (6) Submit an annual report with recommendations to the governor and the legislature;
- (7) Be the responsible body for planning, reviewing and evaluating all State and federal manpower programs; and
- (8) Prepare and submit to the governor, an annual comprehensive statewide manpower plan.”

SECTION 3. Section 202-5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“Sec. 202-5 Organizational relationships. The advisory commission on manpower and full employment is placed within the office of the governor and shall act in an advisory capacity to the governor.”

SECTION 4. Section 202-6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“Sec. 202-6 Interagency Committee. There shall be a state interagency committee consisting of the governor’s administrative director, the heads of the departments of agriculture, education, social services, labor and industrial relations, planning and economic development, health, personnel services, the directors of the Hawaii office of economic opportunity law enforcement and juvenile delinquency agency, commission on aging, the executive officer of the State vocational education coordinating committee, the executive secretary of the commission on children and youth, and the president of the university of Hawaii or his designated representative, and others as may be indicated. The interagency committee shall advise the advisory commission on manpower and full employment, maintain effective liaison with the resources of such departments and agencies, and coordinate their plans, policies, and actions that bear on comprehensive manpower planning and implementation of programs.”

SECTION 5. The secretariat of the State cooperative manpower study plan system committee (C.A.M.P.S.) is hereby transferred to the advisory commission on manpower and full employment. The staff of the secretariat shall be a responsibility of and report to the commission.

SECTION 6. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed. New material is underscored. In printing this Act, the revisor of statutes need not include the brackets, the bracketed material, or the underscoring.*

SECTION 7. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 1970.

(Approved June 29, 1970.)
