

A Bill for an Act Relating to the Department of Regulatory Agencies.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 26-9, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read:

“Sec. 26-9 Department of regulatory agencies. The department of regulatory agencies shall be headed by a single executive to be known as the director of regulatory agencies.

The department shall protect the interests of consumers, depositors, and investors throughout the State. It shall set standards and enforce all laws, rules, and regulations governing the licensing and operation of, and register and supervise the conduct of trades, businesses, and professions, including banks, insurance companies, brokerage firms, and other financial institutions.

The board of examiners of abstract makers, board of accountants, board of barbers, board of cosmetology, boxing commission, board of chiropractic examiners, collection agencies advisory board, contractors license board, board of dental examiners, board of registration for professional engineers, architects, and surveyors, board of massage, board of medical examiners, board of examiners in naturopathy, board of nursing, board of examiners of nursing home administrators, board of dispensing opticians, board of examiners in optometry, board of osteopathic examiners, board of pharmacy, board of photography, board of detectives and guards, public utilities commission, real estate commission, and board of veterinary examiners are placed within the department of regulatory agencies for administrative purposes.

Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, the functions, duties, and powers, subject to the administrative control of the director of regulatory agencies, and the composition of each board and commission shall be as heretofore provided by law.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, the employment, appointment, promotion, transfer, demotion, discharge, and job descriptions of all officers and employees under the administrative control of this department shall be determined by the director of regulatory agencies subject only to applicable personnel laws.

The director of regulatory agencies may appoint a hearings officer or officers not subject to chapters 76 and 77 to hear and decide any case or controversy regarding licenses and the application and enforcement of rules and regulations involving any of the boards or commissions within the department of regulatory agencies. The hearings officer or officers shall have power to issue subpoenas, administer oaths, hear testimony, find facts, and make conclusions of law and a recommended decision; provided, that the conclusions and decisions shall be subject to review and redetermination by the officer, board, or commission which would have heard the case in the first instance in the absence of a hearings officer. The review shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 91.

The director may appoint a complaints officer not subject to chapters 76 and 77 who shall facilitate the investigation and hearing of complaints.

The functions and authority heretofore exercised by the treasurer (except funds custody, cash management, debt management, and administering of veterans loans transferred to the department of budget and finance) as heretofore constituted are transferred to the department of regulatory agencies established by this chapter. The director of regulatory agencies shall also be the insurance commissioner, commissioner of securities, and the fire marshal of the State.”

SECTION 2. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed. New material is underscored. In printing this Act, the revisor of statutes need not include the brackets, the bracketed material, or the underscoring.*

SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
