

A Bill for an Act Relating to Employment Security.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Chapter 383, part VII, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read:

“§383- Ineligibility for extended benefits when paid under an interstate claim in a state where extended benefit period is not in effect. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), an individual shall not be eligible for extended benefits for any week if:

- (1) Extended benefits are payable for such week pursuant to an interstate claim filed in any state under the interstate benefit payment plan, and
- (2) No extended benefit period is in effect for such week in such state.

(b) Subsection (a) shall not apply with respect to the first two weeks for which extended benefits are payable (determined without regard to this section) pursuant to an interstate claim filed under the interstate benefit payment plan to the individual from the extended benefit account established for the individual with respect to the benefit year.”

SECTION 2. New statutory material is underscored.*

SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

(Approved June 19, 1981.)
