

ACT 145

S.B. NO. 1095

A Bill for an Act Relating to Penal Responsibility and Fitness to Proceed.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 704-404, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (2) to read as follows:

“(2) Upon suspension of further proceedings in the prosecution, the court shall appoint three qualified examiners to examine and report upon the physical and mental condition of the defendant. In each case the court shall appoint at least one psychiatrist and at least one [certified clinical] licensed psychologist. The third member may be either a psychiatrist, [certified clinical] licensed psychologist or qualified physician. One of the three shall be a psychiatrist or [certified clinical] licensed psychologist designated by the director of health from within the department of health. The three examiners shall be appointed from a list of certified sanitary¹ examiners as determined by the State department of health. The court may order the defendant to be committed to a hospital or other suitable facility for the purpose of the examination for a period not exceeding thirty days, or such longer period as the court determines to be necessary for the purpose, and may direct that one or more qualified physicians retained by the defendant be permitted to witness and participate in the examination.”

SECTION 2. Section 704-411, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (3) to read as follows:

“(3) When ordering such a hearing the court shall appoint three qualified examiners to examine and report upon the physical and mental condition of the defendant. In each case the court shall appoint at least one psychiatrist and at least one licensed psychologist. The third member may be either a psychiatrist, licensed psychologist, or a qualified physician. One of the three shall be a psychiatrist or licensed psychologist designated by the director of health from within the department of health. The three examiners shall be appointed from a list of certified sanity examiners as determined by the State department of health. To facilitate such examination and the proceedings thereon, the court may cause the defendant, if not then so confined, to be committed to a hospital or other suitable facility for the purpose of examination and may direct that qualified physicians retained by the defendant be permitted to witness and participate in the examination. The examination and report and the compensation of persons making or assisting in the examination shall be in accord with section 704-404(3), (4)(a) and (b), (6), (7), (8), and (9). As used in this section, the term “licensed psychologist” includes psychologists exempted from licensure by chapter¹ 465-3(3).”

SECTION 3. Section 704-414, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“§704-414 Procedure upon application for discharge, conditional release, or modification of conditions of release. Upon filing of an application pursuant to section 704-412 for discharge or conditional release, or upon the filing of an application pursuant to section 704-413 for discharge or for modification of conditions of release, the court shall appoint three qualified examiners to examine and report upon the physical and mental condition of the defendant. In each case the court shall appoint at least one psychiatrist and at least one licensed psychologist. The third member may be either a psychiatrist, licensed psychologist or qualified physician. One of the three shall be a psychiatrist or licensed psychologist designated by the director of health from within the department of health. The three examiners shall be appointed from a list of certified sanity examiners as determined by the State department of health. To facilitate such examination and the proceedings thereon, the court may cause such person, if not then so confined, to be committed to a hospital or other suitable facility for the purpose of the examination and may direct that qualified physicians retained by the person be permitted to witness and participate in the examination. The examination and report and the compensation of persons making or assisting in the examination shall be in accord with section 704-404(3), (4)(a), (b), (6), (7), (8), and (9). As used in this section, the term “licensed psychologist” includes psychologists exempted from licensure by chapter¹ 465-3(3).”

ACT 145

SECTION 4. Section 706-603, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“§706-603 Pre-sentence mental and medical examination. Before imposing sentence, the court may order a defendant who has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor to submit to mental and other medical observation and examination for a period not exceeding sixty days or such longer period, not to exceed the length of permissible imprisonment, as the court determines to be necessary for the purpose. The defendant may be remanded for this purpose to any available clinic or hospital, intake service center, or community correctional center and, in addition thereto or in the alternative, and¹ court may appoint one or more qualified psychiatrists, physicians, or licensed psychologists to make the examination. The three examiners shall be appointed from a list of certified sanity examiners as determined by the State department of health. The report of the examination shall be submitted to the court. As used in this section, the term “licensed psychologist” includes psychologists exempted from licensure by chapter¹ 465-3(3).”

SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

(Approved June 5, 1987.)
