

A Bill for an Act Relating to Health.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. The legislature finds that Alzheimer’s disease and dementia are chronic health conditions that gravely impact the residents of Hawaii. There are twenty-eight thousand people in Hawaii who are at least sixty-five years old and suffering from Alzheimer’s disease. The expenditure of $207,000,000 in 2018 for Medicaid is expected to increase by 35.5 per cent by 2025, with a per capita expenditure of $17,617 for Medicare spending for people with Alzheimer’s disease and other dementia.

The position of Alzheimer’s disease and related dementia services coordinator was established within the executive office on aging by Act 214, Session Laws of Hawaii 2013. The coordinator is tasked with coordinating the provision of public and private Alzheimer’s disease and related dementia services.

The purpose of this Act is to appropriate funds for the existing position of Alzheimer’s disease and related dementia services coordinator within the executive office on aging and make the position exempt from chapters 76 and 89, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

SECTION 2. Section 349-3.2, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“[§349-3.2] Alzheimer’s disease and related dementia services coordinator. There is established within the executive office on aging an Alzheimer’s disease and related dementia services coordinator to coordinate the provision of public and private Alzheimer’s disease and related dementia services. The coordinator shall be appointed by the director ~~[in accordance with chapters 76 and 89].~~”

SECTION 3. Section 76-16, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending subsection (b) to read as follows:

“(b) The civil service to which this chapter applies shall comprise all positions in the State now existing or hereafter established and embrace all personal services performed for the State, except the following:

- (1) Commissioned and enlisted personnel of the Hawaii National Guard as such, and positions in the Hawaii National Guard that are required by state or federal laws or regulations or orders of the National Guard to be filled from those commissioned or enlisted personnel;
- (2) Positions filled by persons employed by contract where the director of human resources development has certified that the service is special or unique or is essential to the public interest and that, because of circumstances surrounding its fulfillment, personnel to perform the service cannot be obtained through normal civil service recruitment procedures. Any such contract may be for any period not exceeding one year;
- (3) Positions that must be filled without delay to comply with a court order or decree if the director determines that recruitment through normal recruitment civil service procedures would result in delay or noncompliance, such as the Felix-Cayetano consent decree;
- (4) Positions filled by the legislature or by either house or any committee thereof;
- (5) Employees in the office of the governor and office of the lieutenant governor, and household employees at Washington Place;
